5 Seek City Council Seats

Five candidates will be vying for two Grayling City Council seats coming up for election on November 7. These seats are held by Sandy Thompson, who will not be seeking re-election, and Wm. Dennis Sloan, who will be seeking his third term on the council.

Petitions were submitted by the Tuesday, September 19, deadline by incumbent W. Dennis Sloan, 109 Clare Street; Lawrence L. Akers, 203 State Street; Dorothy J. Brown, 802 Chestnut Street; Robert J. Ruddy, 507 Ottawa Street; and Allen V. Schreiner, 305 Plum Street.

City Council seats have four year terms. City Manager explained that every two years either two or three seats come up for election, leaving at least two council members in office bringing continuity to the council.

There has not been a contested race for City Council since 1985 when three candidates ran for two council seats. Two of those were incumbents. In 1987, three seats were available, but only the three incumbents submitted petitions.

The two successful candidates will take office on the Monday following the election.

MDOT Eyes Changes To South Business Loop

The Michigan Dept. of Transportation (MDOT) is looking at improving the busy south end of the I-75 Business Loop in Grayling.

"Nothing is set in stone yet but we're in the design phase of some kind of improvement," said Thomas Hilberg, MDOT District Design Engineer, at a "Lunch and Issues" gathering of about 50 Grayling Chamber of Commerce members last Thursday.

MDOT is considering improving the Business Loop from the M-72 East traffic light to the I-75 entrance and exit beyond the Grayling Holiday Inn.

Hilberg mentioned two of the options being considered:

- Pave the existing median to create 6 lanes and have two inside lanes for turning.
- Beautify the existing median and leave it.

Construct two lanes on the outside of the present lanes. The two inside lanes would be turn lanes.

Hilberg said MDOT is just looking at options right now and would be happy to have local input.

City manager Jerry Morford told the Chamber members that local Road Commission Manager John Kelr, City Councilman Joe White, Jim Vanderlan, John Cherven, Ron Fraser, and Morford have started preliminary discussions about the South Business Loop. He invited any interested persons to join the discussions.

Hilberg, who's been with MDOT 9 years, said it's currently a bad situation along the south end of the Business Loop.

"One problem that I see is when two cars go to make a left half turn. There's only room for one car in the median. The second car has to wait stuck halfway into the traffic lane. There's no doubt it's a high accident area. The problem is getting the money to do something about it," he said.

Hilberg outlined three other MDOT projects slated for the county.

1. Widening East M-72 to four lanes with curb and gutters from the I-75 Business Loop traffic light to the I-75 overpass. The bids have been let for the project and Hilberg estimated it would be completed by May, 1990.

2. Resurfacing I-75 from M-93 to Crawford-Otsego county line. Completion expected within 3 years.

3. Resurfacing 3.6 miles of southbound I-75 from near the junction of I-75 and U.S. north to end of concrete. Completion of the project is expected within three years.

Hilberg also said a short four-lane widening project on M-72 West should be finished by 1991 or 1992. The two blocks from the I-75 Business Loop traffic light to the railroad tracks would be widened to four lanes and the railroad track crossing will be re-done.

Hilberg, answering questions from chamber members, said there is nothing in the district MDOT 10-year plan calling for widening M-72 West to four lanes on any part of the Grayling to Kalkaska route.

He said the U.S. 131 project does not have any funding or a plan for beyond Manton as of right

KCC Seeks 1½ Mills In Oct. 9 Election

On Monday, October 9, Kirtland Community College will be asking Crawford County voters and taxpayers from five other school districts served by the college to approve a one and one-half mill tax increase for five years for general operations.

Kirtland Community College has been operating for 23 years on the one mill initially approved by voters in 1966, and is presently the only Michigan community college operating on one mill.

In 1985 and 1987, Kirtland requested millage increases, one-half mill in 1985 and one mill in 1987. Both requests were turned down.

To compensate for these millage defeats, the college cut approximately $400,000 from its 1987-88 preliminary budget, laid off 52 employees (nine full-time and 43 part-time), eliminated off-campus college classes, reduced senior citizen programs, and cut the Electronics, Welding and Graphic Design programs. In addition to cut-backs, student tuition rates have increased 50 percent in the last three years.

"Tuition only covers about 20 percent of a college's expenses," said Kirtland's Vice President, Steven Perry. "Eighty percent comes from tax revenues and state aid." Perry said state aid payments have not kept up with inflation, and the only place left to raise revenue is through local taxes.

Perry said Kirtland Community College is penalized because local tax support, one mill, is lower than the state average for community colleges.

"Because we generate only one mill, the formula deducts the difference between what we generate from the state average," he said. "It's sort of double jeopardy. We do not receive the higher millage plus we are losing state aid because our millage rate is so low."

The tax increase equals $1.50 per $1,000 of assessed equalized property valuation. For the resident who owns a $40,000 home with an assessed value of $20,000, the 1.5 increase will mean a $30 increase per year. This amount will be less for residents who qualify for a tax rebate under the Michigan Homestead Property Tax Credit Program.

In 1988 a 32 member citizens advisory committee was formed to study the college's financial situation. It was on the recommendation of this committee that Kirtland decided to ask for the additional one and one-half mills. Initially this committee's recommendation was for a two mill increase, but reduced it to one and one-half, and recommended the remaining one-half be made up in a tuition increase. The North Central Accreditation Team and Michigan Employment Relations Commission have both stated that a millage increase is critical to the future success of the college.

Perry stated that if the millage request is turned down by voters on October 9, additional cuts will be made. Programs such as Nursing, Law Enforcement, Home Health Care, Corrections and Aviation Maintenance will experience limited enrollment. Obsolete training equipment will not be replaced and maintenance and repair of the college facilities will be restricted.

CUTS CANNOT CONTINUE

One member of the advisory committee summed up the reason for the increased millage by saying that program and budget cuts cannot continue to be the answer to the college's financial needs and still maintain the purpose of a community college, which is to provide the opportunity to upgrade skills for a better job through a college education that is affordable.

"Without Kirtland Community College," said Ron Fraser, an advisory committee member and owner of the Grayling Holiday Inn, "many young people would not be able to go on to further their education." He said he has had several employees who balanced working full or part-time jobs and attending classes at Kirtland. Fraser said this opportunity is available to students who are not ready for the pressures of the large university, students who cannot afford to go to college full-time, and older students, who are either trying to acquire new employable skills or improve the skills they already possess.

Owosso Man Appointed Next Camp Grayling Commander

Lieutenant Colonel Wayne C. Koppa, of Owosso, has been appointed the new Commander of Camp Grayling. He will replace Col. David B. "Skip" Hanson, who will retire October 31st.

Koppa's responsibilities will be to supervise the training of more than 30,000 National Guardsmen and women at Camp Grayling throughout the year. Camp Grayling is the nation's largest state-owned National Guard training site with 147,000 acres of training area.

Koppa is a life-long resident of Owosso and graduated from Owosso High School in 1969. He is the son of the late Joseph Koppa, who was a long-time police officer for Owosso, and Helen Koppa. He is married to the former Marcia Bronson. The Koppas plan to move to Camp Grayling and reside in the Camp Commander's cottage on the shores of Lake Margrethe.

Lieutenant Colonel Koppa joined the Michigan Army National Guard in 1970 by enlisting in the 144th Military Police Company in Owosso. He attended officer candidate school at Fort Custer, Michigan, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Military Police Corps. His next assignment was as commanding officer of the 746th Ordnance Company in Lapeer, Michigan.

In 1975, Koppa became a full time member of the Michigan Department of Military Affairs and was assigned as the Recruiting and Retention Manager of the Michigan Army National Guard, a position he held until 1988 when he became the Administrative Officer for the 72nd Support Brigade. The 72nd is the Michigan Army National Guard's largest brigade and is headquartered in Jackson, Michigan.

Lieutenant Colonel Koppa is a graduate of the U.S. Army's Command and General Staff Officer's Course and holds a bachelor's degree from Spring Arbor College in Human Resources Management. He is currently studying toward a master's degree in Public Administration with Western Michigan University's off campus graduate study program.

McMillan Named To State SADD Advisory Board

Grayling High School junior Mike McMillan has been chosen by the adult coordinators to serve as a member of the 1989-90 state student advisory board of Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD).

The student board, explains Mike, coordinates the annual state conference and runs activities in downstate Michigan, such as "Project Graduation." He hopes to see the board organize similar activities in the northern part of the state in the coming school year.

As the board member from the school district farthest north, he has the responsibility to advocate strongly for services to northern Michigan schools and communities.

The rest of the 17-member panel are from southern Michigan schools, with the closest other board member from Reed City.

The advisory board meets once every two or three weeks in Birmingham or Big Rapids. It is divided into groups, which work on special projects. Presently, Mike is assigned to a committee which is preparing a speech honoring SADD presidents to be delivered at the annual conference.

This year's conference will be held at Shanty Creek Resort in November. The state board members have the task of developing conference workshops, such as "How to Organize your SADD Chapter," "Creating a SADD Atmosphere" and "Troubleshooting."

Mike says that he believes in SADD because "statistics show that nationally it's definitely helping reduce drunk driving accidents." He adds that Michigan is leading the way because "we have the most chapters of any state and were the first ones to have annual meetings and the student advisory board."

He has been a member of the GHS SADD Chapter since his freshman year, when the Student Council sent Mike and five other students to the 2nd annual conference to get ideas for starting a group here. He served as secretary in 10th grade, and he plans to run for president when elections for officers are held this fall.

He hopes to see the

GHS Chapter "do a lot more things this year," such as build a permanent float which could be used in local parades.

In addition to his involvement in SADD, Mike is the president of the GHS Student Council executive board and a student coordinator for the Red Cross Blood Banks. A college preparatory student, he plans to study mathematics or science after graduation.

Mike is the son of Jim and Ann McMillan of Grayling. The GHS SADD Chapter is under the advisorship of William Bonkowski. In 1988-89, GHS senior Janice Helsel served on the state student advisory board.

Moshier Wins Small Bus Driving State Competition

Small bus drivers from throughout Michigan gathered in East Lansing on August 24th to compete in the 14th annual Small Bus Rodeo, and Richard Moshier of Grayling took first place honors.

Moshier, a bus driver for the Crawford County Public Transit (CCPT), was one of 33 drivers (one from each small bus system) competing in the rodeo which consisted of three events: road tests, vehicle inspections and safe-driving quizzes.

Moshier is the second CCPT employee to take first place at the event. Don Boone won in 1987.

Moshier explained that the safe-driving quiz included about 50 questions. The vehicle inspection challenged drivers to find five mechanical malfunctions on their assigned bus. Moshier was one of two drivers who found all five mechanical problems. Burned out headlights, missing safety equipment and broken gauges are examples of these malfunctions. The road test was an obstacle course that represented actual driving situations that could be confronted on a daily basis. These included parallel parking, making tight right and left turns, pulling the bus into a stall and curb parking.

"The main objective," said Moshier, "was not to hit anything!"

"Richard got the worst possible draw in the competition," said CCPT Director Dave Frederick, "driving in 33rd position."

"Yeh," laughed Moshier, "Everyone else had left the area and was eating lunch by the time I started driving."

A lifetime resident of Crawford County, Moshier has worked for the CCPT for seven years. During that time he said he has had many experiences. One that stood out in his memory happened last year, sometime between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

"I had pulled into the Pizza Hut parking lot to wait for a transfer passenger from another bus," he recalled, "when I saw a purse laying on the ground." There were no cars around the purse indicating who it might belong to so I returned it to the bus office unopened."

Moshier and Frederick examined the contents of the purse to find some identification, and found $250 in cash. The purse belonged to a woman from Leeland, and Frederick called her to tell her that her purse had been found.

"It turned out that the owner was the wife of a charter fishing captain, who had passed through Grayling on her way downstate to visit relatives," said Frederick. "She had stopped at the Pizza Hut to eat and had experienced a particularly spill-filled lunch. Somewhat frustrated she had put her purse on the top of her car while she got her children secured in their seats. Without thinking she drove off with the purse still on top the car," he said.

Frederick said the woman's husband was able to contact the downstate relatives before his wife arrived and discovered she had lost her purse.

"They were mighty happy people," said Frederick. "As I remember she intended to do some Christmas shopping during her visit," said Moshier.

Another experience also occurred last year. "It had been snowing hard all day," Moshier said, "and the schools had decided to close early. The roads were getting pretty slippery, but I had to go to Pioneer Hill in Roscommon to pick up a group of Special Olympic athletes and take them home." He said some of the kids lived way back in the woods.

"All that on roads nobody else was travelling on," Moshier said.

ONE OF BEST DRIVERS

Moshier said he was very surprised to learn that he had won first place.

"I wasn't," said Frederick. "Both Bill Worden, our operation maintenance operator, and I knew that Richard had the capability to win."

The CCPT supervisory staff selects the driver to compete in the rodeo event. Moshier had competed in the rodeo competition in 1985 and was among the top 10 finishers.

"I clinched," stated Moshier about his try in 1985.

Agnes Nelson, a regular passenger on Moshier's bus, said she was happy "Dick" had won.

"He is one of the best drivers," she said. "He has so much patience with the school children and older passengers, even carrying in our groceries sometimes," said Mrs. Nelson. "He treats everyone the same, and never has a harsh word."

To show her appreciation to all the CCPT employees, Mrs. Nelson shares her baked goods with them. To date Frederick estimates that Mrs. Nelson has given them more than 100 cakes. It works out to be about 20 a year, he said.

Many of Moshier's passengers agree with Mrs. Nelson's high opinion of Moshier.

ings, he said.

"Dollar Wise is where you'll discover many incredible values and bring those values from our warehouse to your home. Come over and pick up a bargain," Yono said.

Let's Talk About It

By Joe Murphy

Do you remember what an exciting time deer season used to be? Old U.S. 27 was jammed with cars for three or four days before season opened. I remember in Frederic it was all but impossible to cross the highway for cars were bumper to bumper for miles. The old ferry service at the straits was over taxed and traffic was backed up for miles. Gas stations up there had long hoses so you could get gassed up without losing your place in line.

Every little town in the north geared up to handle the rush. Stores and gas stations operated 24 hours a day during the peak of the rush. Every home that could come up with a spare bed or two had no trouble renting them to hunters. Signs room and board for hunters popped up in front of a lot of homes.

Hunting camps were all over the woods, most for a week or more. Some camps appeared in the same place year after year. Jobs were easy to find for people that didn't care to hunt. For a week or more every little town was like a boom town.

In Frederic the Hunters Ball was the high light of the year. I remember at school we sold tickets to our pig raffle, A Pig For A Penny tickets to raise money for school projects. The senior class always held a Hunters Dinner to raise money for their senior trip. The ladies who took in hunters out did themselves in preparing good meals for their hunters. They all wanted to get where they had the same hunters coming back year after year.

The only telephone in Frederic was in Ace Leng's old general store. It was an old crank telephone but in the evening it was common to see twenty or thirty hunters lined up to use the phone to call home. Mom cooked at the AuSable Hotel during deer season. She had to get up at four thirty to get to the hotel to cook breakfast and didn't get home till nine or nine thirty at night all for a dollar a day.

Those were hard times that to think about today really makes me sad. Every dollar meant a lot to folks in those times for it took a lot of sweat to earn it.

Some of the hunters came just to sit around in the bars and hear the stories. Some wanted to buy a buck to take home and some of the old boys were not adverse to selling one. Even in those hard times they'd pay thirty or forty dollars for a good buck. You can't really blame the boys for supplying them it was the most money they saw all year. There used to be a lot more hunters in the woods along with a lot more deer. It used to be the shooting would start the first morning at the first dim light and go on steady all day. Now I sometimes don't hear a shot for an hour or so the first day. Now if you want good hunting you have to go south to farm country. Times they keep achanging.

Legislature Back; Politics High

THE MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE is back in town, and the sweet smell of politics fills the air.

Everything the lawmakers touch will have the aura of politics about it. How can it be otherwise with 1990 being an election year when all 110 House members and all 38 state senate seats are available for election.

On top of that, the No. 1 race in the state -- the governorship -- will be up for the taking next year, too. And the two most likely opponents are the leading players in the entire capitol drama.

Incumbent Democratic Gov. James Blanchard is off and running again -- make no mistake about that. The governor is always at center-stage in legislative matters -- especially one as sensitive to the legislative process as is Mr. Blanchard.

Republican Sen. John Engler of Mt. Pleasant holds the key post as majority leader of the state senate. As such, hardly anything of consequence clears the legislative process without his approval. Mr. Engler is a master player in the art of making laws. And he, too, is running for governor next year -- make no mistake about that, either.

With such a background, can the fall session be anything but a spawning bed for political maneuvering? No way.

WHAT'S ON TAP? Everything with any connection to voter appeal. Fighting drugs is popular now. So are improving schools, fighting crime, cutting taxes....all these will receive attention.

Flag burning is a hot topic: we can expect something to be said about it in Lansing. Campaign spending is also hot; that, too, likely will be discussed.

But will anything of consequence really happen to improve the lot of the taxpayer?

The likelihood is that compromise is necessary to accomplish anything of consequence. That's the way the legislature is set up now. Political posturing is a sure thing. Candidates for 1990 will try to forge a platform from which to appeal to voters next year; that's part of the total process.

But with neither party having clear control, compromise is essential to progress. That's not too likely on fundamental issues.

"I DON'T WANT anyone to sneak out of town and not deal with drugs and crime, education and the environment," Gov. Blanchard warned. Sure, Governor.

"Some of these issues have been around well before the 1990 political lines were drawn; they should be resolved and removed from politics," said Sen. Engler. Sure, Senator.

Rep. Paul Hillegonds, the minority (Republican) leader of the house, probably was closest to the truth in forecasting the outcome of this -- or any -- session of the Michigan legislature.

Things aren't tough enough to force action, he indicated.

"When there's no crisis, we tend to deal with inconsequential things, rather than looking at long range problems," Hillegonds said.

That probably applies to any law making body, not just to the Michigan legislature.

At any rate, keep your eye on the legislature, the governor, and their inter-actions during the next few weeks.

What you see in Lansing now will likely be re-run throughout the state next year.

NUTS AND JOLTS -- Some column closing Nuts and Jolts from Hod Shewell:

-- Some taxpayers wouldn't be nearly so reluctant to tighten their belts if they could be tightened around the neck of a few congressmen or legislators.

-- An unreliable witness is one who has to look at his notes when a lawyer asks him his name.

Reader Feels Registering Assault Rifles Would Nullify 2nd Amendment

The seeds are being sown right now for a repeat of the Tiananmen Square massacre.

The next time, however, it could very well take place in the United States.

When the Bill of Rights was written, it was generally understood that the best way to guarantee continued freedom was to guarantee the individual right of self-defense. The 2nd Amendment was not written to preserve the national guard's right to be armed. It was written to guarantee that the people would always have the ability to protect themselves from whatever government was in power.

It should be remembered that when Hitler was elected to leadership, he didn't campaign on a platform of death and destruction. It was only after he had total power that the German people learned what kind of man he was. Since all privately owned weapons had been registered, they were easily confiscated. The people literally had no way to stop Hitler's tyranny.

Those who suggest "at least" registering such things as assault rifles miss the whole point of the 2nd Amendment. If the government has the names of everyone who owns a weapon, then those weapons become useless either as a deterrent against tyranny or as a means of removing it.

Furthermore, if the government denies the right to own all but "sporting" weapons (as defined by the government), the 2nd Amendment is effectively nullified. The founding fathers said nothing about the "right" to shoot deer or pheasants or the "right" to go target shooting.

When some politician points to a certain type of weapon and says "the only thing this is good for is killing people," let's remember that is precisely what the 2nd Amendment was written for. Deer and pheasants do not become tyrants. People do!

It's true that we never heard of a lunatic shooting children on a playground in soviet Russia or in Nazi German, but millions have died horrible deaths in each of those countries. Perhaps Ben Franklin said it best: "Those who give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."

Calendar Program To Aid Boy Scouts

Dear Mr. Thompson:

The City of Grayling Police Department since 1973 has participated in an annual calendar program. This program has the endorsement of the Northern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police (N.M.A.C.P.) and has resulted in proceeds which have been utilized for area law enforcement as well as local organizations.

Proceeds from the 1989 program have been directed to the Knights of Columbus and Masonic Lodge Youth Scholarship funds. Over the past years the program has been provided by the Robert Foster Enterprises, Troy, Michigan. Arrangements have been made with Loren Goodale, Jr. III, Boy Scout Troop 979 Leader to have the 1990 and future Calendar programs handled by Troop 979 Scouts.

The program will still maintain the endorsement of the Northern Michigan Police Chiefs and the City of Grayling Police Department.

However, the printing and publication will now be handled through Straits Area Printing, Cheboygan, MI. Proceeds from the new program will be divided between the N.M.A.C.P. and the Boy Scout Troop 979. It is expected that the Scouts will be able to realize significant proceeds from the Calendar, which will offset their loss of revenue from their paper drives resulting from a drop in market value.

Grayling area businesses have been very receptive to past Calendar Programs, the Grayling City Police are happy to support the Boy Scout efforts and encourage businesses to help make this an overwhelming fund raising success. Mr. Goodale will be arranging for his Scout Troop members to contact area business people for participation.

Reader Says Laser Testing To Ruin Air

A letter to the editor:

What a chance for the business boys while the A-7 jet fighters and AH-64 Attack helicopters fly racetrack patterns: A Crawford County Laser Festival. I'm told T-Shirts with "I survived the Laser Testing" are on the way. The real tip-off to this insanity is in phrases "recreational activities" which loosely translated means drinking beer and "Non-eye safe" which means, if you watch, your pupils will melt down your cheeks.

What a scenario, 500 meter clouds of fog oil and graphite, fuel pods. "Most species will temporarily leave the area as soon as the activity levels increase": no kidding. All this under the clouded logic that Camp Grayling matches Germany in weather and terrain.

I suspect that half of you who keep buying this stupidity will be out in force with flags in hand. I have a suggestion for the other half: fill up a shoebox of Crawford County ground-pounded sand and mail it to Major Jerry Foehl, Public Affairs Officer at Camp Grayling. They've ruined the ground, now they want the air.

Mike Delp

ALL ABOUT TOWN

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen
Avalanche Columnist

"What's that palindrome about the Panama Canal?" asked the history teacher at lunch the other day. "I'm showing a video about the construction of the canal and I thought my students would be amused by it."

The language arts teacher provided the answer: "A man, a plan, a canal, Panama." (A palindrome, in case you've forgotten or were never told, is a word, phrase or sentence which reads exactly the same backward as forward).

Here's a couple others: "Madam, I'm Adam." And what were Napoleon's last words? "Able was I 'ere I saw Elba."

"It's a good film," continued the history instructor. "It deals with the mechanics of building the canal, so it interests students who are not so keen on history. It was an amazing feat."

"True," interjected the science teacher, but the real problem they had in building the Panama Canal was not in the engineering of it. It was in developing a cure for the yellow fever which killed so many people working on it. Once Walter Reed and his assistants discovered a vaccine for the fatal disease, construction proceeded and the canal was completed in 1914."

"And furthermore," added the environmental science teacher, the continued use of the canal is in jeopardy because of..."

"Manuel Noriega," the Spanish teacher guessed.

"No. Because of the continued depletion of the Amazon Rain Forest."

"Whaaaaat???" The teachers were skeptical.

"Because the trees of the rain forest send moisture, which becomes rain, into the atmosphere. The rains carry water into the lakes on both sides of the locks. There is fear among scientists that with the heavy deforestation taking place in South America, the Panamanian lakes will dry up, making passage through the canal impossible."

We shook our heads sadly at the imprudent policies, attitudes and practices that are steadily killing off the tropical rain forest. (I heard on National Public Radio the other evening that the rain forest is disappearing at the horrifying rate of a football field per second!)

How fortunate that we live in a progressive nation, where environmental decisions are made with a look to the long term effects rather than to the immediate (Usually economic) payoff, no? Hardly.

The health teacher informed us that the average American uses 49 times the energy that the average Indian citizen does. Why do we think the rain forest is being decimated? We Americans should be looking at (and doing something about) our own greedy use, overuse and abuse of the environment before we fault the practices of other nations.

"I want you to see this," said the English instructor, producing an article from Mother Earth News about natural farming. The three scientists interviewed for the story, were not optimistic about the future of our planet.

Said one, an Australian: Several hundred fellow Australian scientists refused to get together recently "to discuss ways to change the environmental future. They said it was already too late. We all have to get to work. The time for gathering evidence is over. There is only time for action."

Said the second, an American: "Land is not a gift from God. We don't own it. What we have is a right to use the land. We have no right to damage it."

Said the third, a Japanese: "Our world leaders must have a great courage. . . . They must take the bombers and the missiles that are loaded with implements of war and throw the bombs away. The pelletize seeds of all different types . . . load up the missiles with the seeds, shoot them up, and spread seeds all over the earth. . . ."

"You'll regreen the earth, fix the ecological crisis, and give people the chance to find happiness. And then there can be peace."

If only he is right. If only we will listen -- and act. The signs are around us everywhere, all the time, but we continue to ignore them.

In the teachers' lounge at lunchtime the next day, talk turned to sports. Palindromes, the Panama Canal, the Amazon Rain Forest seemed forgotten.

MDOT

Hilberg also said there is nothing in the MDOT 10-year plan for adding another I-75 exit or entrance ramp. Hilberg said he heard rumors the military wants an exit added at the North Down River Road for the new M.A.T.E.S. facility but that all he heard were rumors. He said there is no MDOT plan for the exit but he added that MDOT would be happy to take federal money and build one.

Hilberg said MDOT has to spend 80 percent of its funding to preserve existing highways. He said expansion projects are looked at if they promote economic growth or relieve congestion.

VFW Will Return To Pere Cheney in '90

The Carl W. Borcher's V.F.W. Auxiliary pig roast was a success. McDonalds, Big Boy, Chicken Delight, and Hardee's helped sponsor the event.

The work is finished at Pere Cheney for the year. They will return in the spring to clear away the debris and to check the surroundings.

The September meeting had seventeen ladies present. They welcomed two new members, Jeanine Putman and Jane Pence. They have the 1989-90 cancer pins to sell again this year. They are $1 each. See any member if you wish to purchase one. It is time to pay membership dues. They are trying for 100 percent by next meeting night. Quite a few have already paid. Their sales at the Crawford County fair netted a small profit.

Every Thursday is work day at the Ranch. The club must have its Christmas projects ready for National Home by the end of November. Bring a sack lunch on those days, coffee will be furnished. Joe Murphy will be the guest speaker in October. The meeting will start at 6:30 (please note the time change for this meeting date). Also remember P.O.W. — W.O.W. meetings are at Boyne Mt. September 28 through Oct. 1.

Thank You

We would like to thank the Frederic Ambulance crew, pastor Donn Broeker, Mr. James Hubert, the women of Frederic for the dinner, our friends and relatives, to everyone for their cards, flowers and prayers. ## All GHS Classes Invited To Benefit Homecoming Dance

The Class of 1984, as part of their 25th Class Reunion, is sponsoring a Benefit Homecoming Dance to assist their classmate, Marcia (Sorenson) Sullivan and her family with their continuing expenses in caring for their son. John was struck by lightning in 1985 during a high school golf tournament. John is cared for in their home by members of the family. The living room and dining room have been converted into a hospital-like room.

All is going well with the fund-raiser so far.

It is hoped that a large number will attend the dance, increasing the funds available to the Sullivan family. The Benefit Homecoming Dance is being held in the Grayling Middle School Gym from 9 p.m. until midnight, Saturday, Sept. 30. Free Wheelin' Fred said he is ready to spin the records to help celebrate Homecoming, and raise money for the Sullivans. The cost of the dance is $15 a couple or $10 single. Advance tickets are available at Mac's Drug Store and Goodale's Bakery.

The decorations have been purchased (green and white, of course), and are just waiting to be hung. Anyone wanting to help with the decorating should come to the Middle School Gym about 1 p.m. Saturday. It should be fun, kind of like the good ole days back in high school.

The Class of 1984 was unable to mail to members of Classes 1969 to 1989. The GHS Alumni Association does not have current mailing lists for these classes. The members of those classes are invited as well. Actually, the dance is open to everyone, not just those who attended GHS.

It was suggested that each class from 1969 through 1989 designate a person to provide a current mailing list to the Alumni Association every year so they could receive the annual newsletter. All graduates of GHS are welcome to join the Alumni Association.

Annual membership dues are $3 and can be sent to the Association at 403 Michigan Avenue, Grayling, MI 49738. They are also accepting donations for their scholarship fund.

There has been one slight change with the dance. Only rubber-soled shoes are allowed on the gym floor so the dance will actually be held in the Middle School cafeteria. A custodian will be present to escort anyone wishing to see the gym or the remodeled school during the afternoon or the dance.

The Class of 1984 is encouraging everyone to attend the Homecoming Parade Friday at 6 p.m. and the football game against Petoskey at 7:30 p.m. Get out and support the Vikings during Homecoming.

Several of the classes have indicated that they are getting a group together to attend the dance. It will be an excellent opportunity for meeting old friends and making new friends, all while helping with the fund raiser.

There have been several inquiries as to what should be worn. The dance is not formal. There is no dress requirement. Let good taste be your guide. Just go and enjoy. If it is a success, maybe it could become an annual event sponsored by the Alumni Association. Maybe even include dinner before the dance.

Gary Swanson, Roy Wedge, and Jim Young. It is hoped that others will come at the last minute. Reserventions are not needed for either the dinner (at Chief Shop penagons Hotel) or the Benefit Homecoming Dance. The Class of 1984

thanks the Crawford County Avalanche for their help, the Crawford-AuSable School Board, and especially the GHS Alumni Association.

Dear Mom and Dad,

I would like to enroll in the Mercy Child Care Center. The teachers are really nice there. They teach us lots of things, let us play games and have fun. I could meet new friends and learn at the same time. Will you consider enrolling me in the pre-school or fulltime program? It's a great investment in my future.

Love,
Your Child

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You
By Bill Hart
Sales Representative

Here's one of the most amazing records ever made in college football...The University of Tennessee once played 17 consecutive regular season games without ever giving up a point in any of those games!...Imagine not letting any team score against you for 17 games in a row...That consecutive shutout streak lasted from Nov. 5, 1938 through Oct. 12, 1940.

Did you know that this year marks the 100th anniversary of the first college All-America football team...A man named Walter Camp, who was the football coach at Yale, came up with the original idea for selecting an All-America team.

Did you ever realize all the great players in big league baseball history who never got a chance to play in a World Series?...Each of these players had a long, successful career in the majors...yet NEVER played in a World Series: Ernie Banks, Rod Carew, George Sisler, Billy Williams, Luke Appling, Gaylord Perry, Phil Niekro, Nap Lajoie, Jim Bunning, Ferguson Jenkins and Ralph Kiner.

I bet you didn't know...that you can come in now and see the brand spanking new 1990 models and at the same time, see the greatest year end clearance in the history of Scherer Motors on remaining 1989's. The best of both worlds at Scherer Motors in Grayling.

Scherer Motors
North Old US-27
348-5451 - Grayling

"Grayling was extremely lucky to win this ball game," said Coach Howard Lehti. "We made 19 points in the fourth quarter, had three three pointers and made some key free throws that helped us salvage the game."

Lehti said with two minutes to go winning looked nearly impossible because of the way Grayling was playing.

Melanie Ojala led her team in baskets, making 11 points. She made two three point baskets in the fourth quarter to help the effort. Other points were made by: Heather Stephenson 10, Michelle Burcham and Nikki Morrill 7 each, Nikki Trenary 6, Margarita Perez 5, and Claudine Allen 3.

Grayling jumped off to a good start, leading Boyne City 13-4 at the end of the first quarter. At half time Boyne City had pulled within 7 points of Grayling, and by the third quarter Boyne had tied the score 31-31.

Coach Lehti said he has still not been able to select a starting five, but has started five different combinations for each game they have played. The starting positions are open and the competition for the slots is fierce making for some exciting practice sessions. Lehti said rotating the starting positions has also given several of the juniors extra playing experience.

"Rebounding was below average," Lehti stated. "Grayling must become more consistent if they are going to be successful in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference, especially when they come up against the so called 'tough teams.'"

To their credit, Lehti said the girls never let down and were able to hold on for the victory.

"Boyne City, a non-conference team, is a much improved team this year," he said, "but the score still should not have been that close."

On Tuesday, September 19, the girls had an easier time with Charlevoix, beating them 54-35. Even having the home court advantage could not help Charlevoix who had four of its players on the injured list, including their 5 ft. 11 in. center.

Lehti said everything went as planned. Grayling executed their game plan, the rebounding was adequate, the press kept the Red Raiders off pace most of the evening and they were able to clear the bench, giving everyone some playing time.

Heather Stephenson led the scoring with 19 points. Melanie Ojala had 13, Michelle Burcham 8, Shannan Hinds 4, Margarita Perez and Claudine Allen 3, and Nikki Morrill and Janet Bickford 2.

Burcham had 10 rebounds. Coach Lehti said Michelle is working on her rebounding every game and is beginning to realize that she has the potential for becoming a leading rebounder on the Grayling squad.

Ojala had 10 steals. The Varsity hosts St. Ignace this Thursday, homecoming week. Last year Grayling lost to St. Ignace, a fact Coach Lehti has not let the team forget.

"St. Ignace is tough," he said, "their V.J. team was 20-0 for the season. Grayling's team should be full of pep with all the homecoming excitement and I expect it will be a good game."

J.V. Girls Defeat Boyne City 39-26

The girls J.V. basketball team split their games last week defeating Boyne City, 39-26 at home on Thursday, September 21, and losing to Charlevoix, 40-28, Tuesday, on the road.

Coach Dallas Hudson said his team played good defense, anticipating the ball well.

"They played as a team," stated Hudson.

"Cindy Fedewa, who was high scorer with 13 points, had an excellent ball game," he said. "She was dominate on defense, having three rebounds and two steals. She played a super ball game."

Other points were scored by: Kim Labo 8, Brenda Moshier 6, Elissa Cox and Andrea Austin 4, and Terri Tope and Kristel Lami 2.

Grayling led Boyne City 10-1 and the end of the first quarter, and extended their lead to 22-7 by half time. Grayling out shot Boyne City 10-8 on the floor in the third quarter, leading them 32-15.

Key rebounders were Brenda Moshier with 14 and Kim Labo 9.

Both girls dominated the boards throughout the game.

Tuesday night the J.V.'s did not fare so well against Charlevoix losing 40-28.

According to Hudson, his team beat themselves in a poor first half and even though they played a better second half, they were unable to make up their deficit.

Grayling was in foul trouble early in the first half. Three of the team's starters fouled out before game's end.

Brenda Moshier led the scoring with 9 points. Other points were made by: Elissa Cox and Cindy Fedewa 6, Michelle Parker 5, and Tara Bertalan 2.

BIG PLAY - #33, Mick McKinney's 62-yard run set up Grayling's first touchdown, run in by Frank Hartwick.

Cold Winds, Charlevoix Chill Grayling 31-13

A long fourth down run by Mick McKinney and two goal line stands by the Viking defense helped Grayling stay close in the first half of last Friday night's game that Charlevoix would later go on to win, 31-13.

The Red Raider's

good blocking and a fast backfield proved to be too much for Grayling in the second half of a game played in less than ideal weather conditions. Remnants of Hurricane Hugo brought cold gusty winds and rain that chilled player and spectator alike.

Grayling scored first on a two yard run by Frank Hartwick that was set up when in a fourth down punting situation a poor snap from center left McKinney no choice but to tuck the ball away and run, which he did for 62 yards and a first down. John Lamie assisted in the effort when he caught a pass from quarterback, Matt Branch, and carried it to the two yard line. The point after was blocked, making the score 6-0, Grayling.

Charlevoix took the ball on the next series of downs and in five plays scored on a one yard run. The extra point was good, putting Charlevoix in the lead, 7-6.

Charlevoix scored again when Grayling fumbled away the ball deep in their own territory late in the second quarter. The extra point was good, Charlevoix led at halftime, 13-6.

The third quarter was dominated by Charlevoix's running game, and with four minutes left they scored again on a one yard run. The extra point was no good, Charlevoix led 19-6.

"We didn't play well up front or in our secondary," said head coach Don Stowers. "They trapped us and ran sweeps to get outside of us."

In the fourth quarter Charlevoix intercepted a Grayling pass. They moved down the field and with seven minutes 59 seconds to go Charlevoix scored their fourth touchdown of the game. The two point conversion pass was blocked by Andy Barkway, extending Charlevoix's lead to 25-6.

With two minutes to go McKinney scored Grayling's last touchdown on a 65 yard run. Andy Eriksson, Grayling's foreign exchange student from Sweden, kicked the extra point.

Charlevoix scored again with 44 seconds left on a 26 yard run, making the final score 31-13.

"Todd Thorsen played as good a game at defensive end as I've seen since coming to Grayling," Stowers said. "Dana Mirale did a good job at linebacker." Stowers also commended David Teddy's defensive effort.

The Vikings host Petoskey on Friday, September 29, for their homecoming game.

"The toughest part of our schedule is early in the season," said Stowers. "Petoskey is undefeated and was the pre-season pick-off-the-league. They have an outstanding quarterback and on defense they have a noseguard who made all-state last year, and he is back."

To beat Petoskey, which Grayling intends to do, Stowers said his team must play errorless football.

MERCY MATTERS

On September 24 in 1827, Catherine McAuley opened the first house of Mercy in Dublin, Ireland. There, the poor, the sick, the uneducated and the unloved could find shelter, comfort, teaching and caring.

We at Mercy Hospital/Grayling, who are members of the Mercy family, remember that day by celebrating every September 24 as Mercy Day. Our hospital is a modern day House of Mercy. The physicians, employees and volunteers at Mercy Hospital gather together with their families for a dinner in the hospital cafeteria in celebration of this event.

Catherine McAuley and the first community of the Sisters of Mercy did not confine their caring to the four walls of the house on Baggot Street. Rather, they went out into the slums of Dublin to take healing and caring and education into the homes of those in need. In fact, because the Sisters of Mercy went out of the House of Mercy and into the community, they were nick-named "The walking nuns" by the people of Dublin.

That Mercy tradition of taking health care into the community is continued today in our community health care system. Our health care system includes a wide range of services to respond to the needs of people in our community, whether they need care in our hospital or in their homes.

One way that we extend the care of Mercy into the community is through Amicare, the home care providers that are members of our Mercy family. Amicare Home Health Services provides nursing, therapy and other services to homebound individuals. Often, Amicare's services follow hospitalization, and provide continuing care in the home. Amicare Services, Incorporated offers supportive services for people who may need assistance with daily activities like cooking, shopping, dressing and errands, as well as nursing services. These services allow people to remain comfortably and safely in their own homes.

Amicare Home Health Resources furnishes home care equipment like beds, wheelchairs, lifts and walkers, and oxygen and respiratory programs. This equipment enables people to remain in the community and in their homes. All three Amicare companies take the care of Mercy into the homes of the people we serve.

For more information about Amicare, you may call Amicare Home Health Services at 517-348-4383, or Amicare Home Health Resources at 1-800-822-8318.

FOOTBALL Contest

1st Place Wins $50 Each Week!

The Avalanche should have been penalized 10 yards last week for two delay-of-game infractions. Game #3 slipped off the page at the printing plant (we marked game 3 correct for everyone who played) and we also goofed in putting 39 total points instead of 29 for some of the leaders in the overall contest. Those sort of mistakes kind of remind you of the way the Lions operate, don't they?

Winning the $50 prize was Corky Hellebuyck with 16 right. His tiebreaker pick of 41 points was closest to the total of 74 scored in the Chicago-Detroit game. Also having 16 right were (with their tiebreaker guess) Art Malknecht (40), Burnis Meech (38), Arthur Thayer (37), and Chad Swander (34). Coming close with 15 right were Irene Wyman, Bill Klinger, John Coughlin, Gerald Worden, Mike O'Brady, Debbie Parks, Patrick Money, Mark Millikin, Geraldine French, Sandy Kelly, Jason Thompson, Donn Messenheimer, Nathan Mead, Mike McNamara, Ace Worden, Michael Hartman, and Mike Beckwith.

The Pittsburgh upset of Minnesota fooled practically everyone and CMU has been letting people down along with your favorite football team the Lions. Since we gave you a free game last week, we're throwing in a little tougher one this week. Check out game #6.

In the overall contest after 3 weeks the leaders are: Mike McNamara 46 total right; Marie St. Germain, Mick McNamara 45; Mike Beckwith, Mike Brady, Arthur Thayer 44; Warren Galvani, Art Malknecht 43; Heidi Mead, Steven Fick, Rick Lindsey, Jason Thompson, and Gary Derenzy 42. There are a lot of others within striking distance -- especially considering there are 12 weeks to go.

Jr. Pro Basketball Expecting 200 Players

The Grayling Middle School gym will soon come alive with the sound of more than 190 boys and girls playing Junior Pro Basketball on Saturday mornings. With sign-ups and practice times just around the corner, the league is anticipating a banner year, with projections of over 200 participants.

The Grayling Junior Pro Basketball League, formed in the fall of 1980 and having 80 players that first year, has grown in size to over 190 kids in the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th grades. Averaging 40 6th graders a year, the league has graduated over 360 boys and girls from the program, many continuing their basketball career in the middle and high school.

Playing with 9 foot baskets, the league emphasizes the coaching of kids in such things as basketball rules, skill improvement, team concept, sportsmanship and just plain having fun. Game rules require each player to play at least half of the game as well as sitting out one quarter.

Other rules only allow players to dribble the ball 4 times, and then must pass or shoot the ball. No full court press is allowed and the players are only allowed to set up in a man to man defense. Since a 9 foot basket is still difficult to shoot at, 3rd and 4th graders are awarded a point if a shot is made at the basket, but only hits the rim. This reinforces the players attitude in being able to score points.

The players have been involved every year in some form of money raising event, from selling candy bars and popcorn, to collecting pop cans. Last year the league was able to pull off something that has never been tried in northern Michigan. Number "15" for the Detroit Pistons, Vinnie "Microwave" Johnson came to Grayling and put on a basketball clinic. The clinic, hosted by Pistons announcer and Grayling native George Blaha, was a huge success, and they hope to be able to have another one in the near future.

The league, endorsed by the Grayling High School Athletic Department, has had financial backing from the Grayling Youth Booster Club since it started, with donations amounting in excess of $10,000. Other sponsors that stayed with the program from the beginning are the Grayling State Bank, Chemical Bank North, Laurines, Pizza Hut, R&H Sports, Grayling Rotary Club, Rochettes, The Cornell Agency, McDonald's, and the Grayling Holiday Inn.

Any boy or girl in grades 3 - 6 are invited to join in on the fun. Sign-ups will be held at R&H Sports beginning next Monday, October 2nd, and run to Saturday October 21st. There is a $7 participation fee, and any parent willing to help coach a team, or otherwise assist in helping out is asked to call Mike Shearer at 348-2088.

I Have a Place In Heaven

Please don't sing sad songs for me, Forget your grief and fears, For I am in a perfect place, Away from pain and tears... I'm far away from hunger, And hurt and want and pride. I have a place in heaven, With the Master at my side. My life on earth was very good, As earthly lives can go, But Paradise is so much more Than anyone can know... My heart is filled with happiness, And sweet rejoicing, too. To walk with God is perfect peace, A joy forever new.

In loving memory of Tammy Marshall.

Hunting

By Joe Murphy

I hope you young hunters are reading this column and learning a little about the great sport of hunting. Maybe a few of you older fellows are picking up a tip or two. We are going to talk this week about some of the things to do if that deer don't drop at your shot and instead takes off in high gear. First never assume that you missed, try to recall your sight picture when the gun fired, that can some times give you some idea where you hit. Now try to remember how the deer reacted to the shot, did it fall, did it hump up or kick out with its hind legs, did it seem to be running low when it left. These are all clues that can help find your kill.

When a deer falls it may or may not indicate a good hit, could be no more than a bullet hitting an antler, or it could be a good solid hit. If it humped or kicked out with the hind legs it's a good indication of a gut shot. A deer that seems to run low often indicates a heart shot. Try to sit still a few minutes to let your nerves settle down, then it's time to make haste slowly. Try to go to the exact spot where the deer was when you shot, with snow it's not much of a problem; on bare ground it can be hard but it's worth the effort. Look the ground over good for hair, blood, or chips of bone. Finding any of these indicates a hit. A good heavy blood trail is always a welcome sight and a short trail. But even if you don't find sign of a hit it's always a good idea to track for a while. Sometimes they don't start to bleed right away even with a solid hit.

Follow the track

slow and careful, watching both for the deer and signs of blood. If you find just a little blood work real slow I like to mark last blood till find another. Look at the blood, pink frothy blood is a sign of a lung hit, dark red blood is artery blood. Normal red blood is a sign of flesh hits. If you find sign of a hit, it's your responsibility to do all you can to recover the deer.

Perhaps the story of my son's first buck will explain what I mean. I had got my buck the first day and Mike had not seen a deer. The second morning I took him up by our old farm. I got him set on a good runway and made a little drive to try to push some deer by him. While I was working toward him I heard him shoot three times which is a bad sign in itself. When I got where he could see me he came running to tell me a nice buck had ran by but he had missed him. I said "Mike, I never say I've missed till I know for sure." I had him go back and sit where he'd been and told him to try to direct me to where the deer had been each time he shot. I found no sign at the first two spots but at the third I found a little chip of bone. The ground was bare and it was hard tracking but I started to find some blood. The blood started to get heavy. I soon looked ahead and saw the buck laying dead. Mike was a very happy and proud fourteen year old boy. He had made a fine shot the bullet went in back on the ribs and angled through to come out ahead of the shoulder on the other side. Next week we'll talk of scouting a big one.

Doodles from the Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover
Hartwick Pines Interpreter

This afternoon, Tuesday the 19th, Hartwick Pines will be a scheduled stop for the 1989 International Forestry Seminar. Participants come from what we call the third world countries and despite their color, native language or political leanings, they share a common interest in the forest.

This year participants will be coming from Cameroon, Uganda, Zimbabwe, Ethiopia, Somalia, Liberia, Nepal, Thailand, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Malaysia, Haiti, Ecuador, Bolivia, Paraguay, Honduras, Uruguay, Nicaragua and St. Kitts. Why do they come to this small spot in Crawford County? The itinerary and schedule folder states the following: "Witness the changes in the forest landscape as an aftermath of extensive logging, and recognize the effects of forest depletion on future management options".

In the past, questions have varied from logging methods, social attitudes, fire prevention, wildlife, tree species, funding, to when am I coming to tour their forest. They are strangers when they arrive and much like old friends when they leave. They start in Ann Arbor and travel to Washington, D.C. by way of Oregon, taking with them a better understanding of forests around the world.

The St. Helen Shooting Club holds exclusive waterfowl hunting rights on Lake St. Helen, Roscommon County. This is a unique situation, but results from long standing riparian rights vested in property owners along inland waters.

Here is the text of a letter written by Regional Wildlife Biologist Gary Boushelle to Mr. Greg Kemppainen of MUCC, explaining how this situation has developed.

"Dear Mr. Kemppainen: Each year the Department of Natural Resources receives several inquiries regarding the status of the exclusive waterfowl hunting rights on Lake St. Helen, Roscommon County, held by the St. Helen Shooting Club.

The following is a summary of information about the history and background of this issue, gleaned from the files, that may assist you with the inquiries:

1. A large part of land on and near Lake St. Helen was originally granted by patent to the Lansing-Jackson-Saginaw Railroad as a grant in aid for the construction of that railroad.

2. In 1902, Mr. John Carter purchased about 140,000 acres of this land and other lands in the eastern part of Roscommon County. Intensive real estate operations were subsequently carried out by Mr. Carter through the operations of the St. Helen Development Company and other corporations held by him.

3. March 30, 1904, the St. Helen Development

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Company conveyed in perpetuity the exclusive hunting rights for game and waterfowl on Lake St. Helen, the adjoining marshes and the South Branch AuSable River, in Section 24, T28N, R2W to the St. Helen Shooting Club, which was organized under Act 171 of 1903 for the exclusive use of the club members and licensees.

The conveyance of these exclusive hunting rights has been challenged and carried to the Michigan Supreme Court on at least two instances.

In St. Helen Shooting Club vs. Carter, 248 Mich. 376, the court ruled that because a defendant got on the lake from the highway, and without trespass across upland, his claim to the right to hunt was without merit.

on Lake St. Helen and the shore thereof. The court reaffirmed the doctrine that:

1. The owner of all the land bordering upon an inland lake is the owner of the land under the lake.

2. The owner of the shore and subaqueous lands of an inland lake has exclusive right of hunting on the shores and water.

In St. Helen Shooting Club vs. Carter, 248 Mich. 376, the court ruled that because a defendant got on the lake from the highway, and without trespass across upland, his claim to the right to hunt was without merit.

These appear to be the prevailing case rulings, and law, until overruled.

Verse or Worse

Dreams Destroyed

*I saw a young lady today
In profile, her beauty took my breath
Then she turned her face toward me
It was like looking at the face of death*

*The eyes I expected to see glowing with life
Showed only the dullness drugs can bring
What could have been a beautiful young lady
Was now a pitiful half dead thing*

*Her chances for a happy life
Squandered for a life of drugs and shame
Her youthful beauty gone long before it's time
And she knows, she is to blame*

*Short months ago her life was filled
With hope, and she still dreamed
A life filled with joy and happiness
Was in her hands it seemed*

*Then one night at a party
She tried the drug cocaine
That one time destroyed all her dreams
Changed her life to one of shame*

*If she had only known the danger
Or just what a killer drugs can be
Had she known they would destroy her every dream
Leave such scars for all to see*

*I wonder if she ever remembers
Those days before her fall
When life still had those hopes and dreams
Before drugs destroyed them all*

Grayling Township Supervisor Bernard Fowler announced that several copies of the Grayling Township Zoning Ordinance were available at the Crawford County Library.

A new all electric scoreboard was erected at the Grayling Memorial Recreation Area (football field and track). Unfortunately on the first night it was used, it could not register a Viking victory.

The Crawford-AuSable Board of Education established a Fine Arts Department at the Grayling High School. The department was to function on an experimental basis during its first year. Howard Taylor, vocal music instructor at the high school, was appointed as chairman of the department.

Grover Cason was treated at Mercy Hospital for severe cuts on both arms, received when he put both arms through his garage door windows when he was trying to keep the door from shutting. Glen's Market was featuring picnic style pork roasts for $.39 per lb., 5 lbs. of Robin Hood Flour for $.44, pascal celery $.19 a stalk and 10 lbs. of Idaho baking potatoes for $.69.

Bob Hale of Grayling was awarded a third place trophy for stock car racing for the season at the American Legion Speedway at West Branch.

Grayling's d-Fenders, a local band, was edged out of taking first place in the State Championship Battle of the Bands by the narrowest margin in the history of the contest by one of Bay City's own bands, the Intruders. The vote was so close that an unprecedented third recount was needed to determine the winner. The competition was held at Bay City's Rollaire roller rink.

In accordance with a motion carried at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council, Sept. 3, the so-called alley in the rear of the stores on Michigan Avenue between Cedar and Peninsular has been closed. On Tuesday morning workmen of the city set three heavy posts in the entrance between the Olson barber shop and the M.P.S. Co. building, making entrance in that area impossible.

For several years effort to get the right of way for a public alley has been made. Always something has come up to prevent carrying out plans. Rather than take the chances of having possible damage suits on its hands, the council ordered the entrance closed.

Mr. and Mrs. Andie Neilson of Beaver Creek are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at Mercy Hospital Sunday. The little lady weighed 7 pounds and will be called Karen Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Davis have purchased the Peter Rasmussen property on the corner of Ionia and Chestnut Streets.

The Bible Speaks

The Gospel of John Part #97 Prayer For Our Mission

Our Lord Jesus Christ commissioned His disciples to continue His ministry following His ascension into Heaven. "As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world." (John 17:18). God sent His only begotten Son into the world as a love gift that we might not perish, but be saved through faith in Him. (John 3:16, 17). "He loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins." (1 John 4:10).

This great commission is repeated in John 20:21, "...as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you."

The message we preach is clear in Luke 24:46, 47, "And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." Mark tells us who we are to preach to. "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15, 16). Our Lord Jesus Christ promised us His power, precepts, and presence to fulfill this task in Matthew 28:18-20. The progressive nature of this commission is found in Acts 1:8, "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

As verse 18 above reveals the divine call of God's will in missions, even so, verse 19a reveals the divine consecration of God's work in missions. "And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth." (John 17:19). Our Lord Jesus Christ willingly set himself apart to go to the cross for our benefit. "By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all." (Heb. 10:10). "Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works." (Titus 2:14).

Finally, in verse 19b we observe the divine communication of God's Word in missions. "...That they also might be sanctified through the truth." "That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?" (Prov. 22:21).

Talk AND Listen

A pastor-grandfather had stopped to talk with some pre-school children on the playground. He knelt down to their eye-level—something he always did. "They can see your face rather than your legs," he'd say. He talked and listened for what seemed too long a time.

"Do you think they know or will remember what you talked about?" his son asked, somewhat skeptical of his use of time.

He smiled and then made a statement that should never be forgotten:

"It's not what you talk about that's important; what's important is that you talk and listen."

Having reared nine children successfully, perhaps he knew what he was talking about.

Miniature Local Farmhouse Replica Valued at $15,600

A miniature replica of the Skingley farmhouse that once stood on the corner of Merrio and Fletcher roads in Beaver Creek Township has been donated to the Crawford County Historical Museum by Col. George L. Lokken and his wife, Mary Esther, of San Antonio, Texas. Mary Esther, the daughter of Harold Skingley, was born in Grayling, and the Skingley farmhouse was the home of her paternal grandparents, John and Bertha Skingley. The gift is valued at $15,600.

The original farmhouse was constructed in 1901 by its owner, John Robert Skingley and his sons, Raymond and Alex, while Mrs. Skingley and her young son, Arthur, visited her family in England. The house had 13 rooms plus a milk room and an attached woodshed. There were no bathrooms or electricity. It was of Eastlake design, and cost less than $8,000 to build.

The house remained home to the Skingleys and their six children, John Raymond, William Alexander, George Edwin, Bertha (Beth), Harold Theodore and Albert Arthur, until it burned to the ground in 1936. (Their second eldest son, Walter, died before the Skingleys moved into the house.) The fire was caused when an acetylene torch, used by Arthur to repair a water tank in the attic, exploded, spewing gasoline in the attic and all over Arthur. Family members were able to get Arthur out of the burning house and he was rushed to the Grayling hospital, but he died three days later as result of his burns.

Three weeks later Bertha Skingley died. Some say she died of a broken heart over the loss of her son and the family home, but her death was more likely related to her diabetic condition. Mary Esther said Bertha ate a piece of cake at the marriage celebration of her granddaughter Virginia to LeRoy Millikin. She slipped into a coma shortly thereafter, and never recovered. Skingley family members report that the home, with its fine furnishings, may have been of great value to Grandma Bertha, because it is believed that she came from a proper English family of some means and had married the family butler, John Skingley. Later the newlyweds immigrated to the United States.

The idea to recreate the Skingley farmhouse in miniature came to Mary Esther in 1978 when she was shopping for a doll house for her granddaughter, Kree, for Christmas. The following spring she met Victor Hogg when she visited his shop in Williamston, near Lansing. Hogg specializes in miniatures of all types. During the discussion with Hogg, he told her that some people build a miniature of a house that had particular significance for them in their childhood.

"Later," she recalled, "when I was telling my husband about the meeting with Victor Hogg, I repeated Victor's statement. It was only then," she said, "that the thought struck me that the house from my childhood memories would be the house of my grandparents, John and Bertha Skingley."

For a variety of reasons, the miniature idea lay dormant in Mary Esther's mind until the spring of 1982 when her husband encouraged her to undertake the project. When she contacted Victor Hogg about starting construction of the miniature house, he said he couldn't begin until August. Mary Esther said she used the interim time to begin researching the project.

In August the seven surviving Skingley grandchildren, Victor Hogg and his wife, Pat, met at Evelyn (Skingley) Gardiner's home in Grayling to look over the preliminary drawings of the proposed house and to make additions and corrections to the plan. Mary Esther said it was almost impossible to find a break in the conversation as the relatives shared pictures and memories. At the end of the meeting, Hogg possessed the detailed information he needed to proceed with the architectural plans of the house. Besides Gardiner and Lokken, other Skingley grandchildren included: Patricia Wakeley, Virginia Millikin, Dorothy Abbott, Kathryn Traylor Garbe and Marian Rokos.

SIX MONTHS TO BUILD

It took six months to complete construction of the farmhouse. During this time Mary Esther travelled to Chicago, San Francisco, Detroit, Washington D.C., and other cities to collect furniture for the house. Items came from as far away as London, England. Total cost of the furnishings was $4,000. The most costly item was the miniature violin and case made by Bert Moskowitz of Massachusetts for $225. The leather chair in the living room, ordered from Peter Davies in London, England, was $75. The only miniature item Mary Esther was not able to obtain was a cream separator for the milk room off the kitchen.

Special features of the Skingley house include:

- 4,000 individual shingles that were used to build the roof.
- All the doors swing out, and the screens are made of cloth netting.
- The windows are made of particularly thin glass, and the can be raised and lowered.
- All of the drawers and doors in the furniture open and close. Some contain appropriate items such as extra linen napkins and silver in the dining room pass-through drawers.
- The miniature house has electric lights which represent the original carbide lamps on the first floor and the kerosene lamps on the second floor of the Skingley farmhouse.
- A few of the pictures are duplicates of actual pictures or paintings such as the pictures of John and Bertha Skingley that hang to the left and right above the master bedroom fireplace. Alex Skingley's picture, who was killed as a young man in a farming accident, is hung over the living room fireplace.

MINIATURE INSTRUMENTS

The musical instruments are miniatures of actual instruments played by the musical Skingley family. Bertha Skingley played the auto harp and Arthur played the violin for dances at the Hayloft, a barn which was located on the property now owned by Vernon Gardiner, husband of Evelyn - now deceased, when the property was owned by Evelyn's parents, George and Flora Skingley. The piano was hand made by Hogg. The original family piano is still owned by Pat Wakeley. The sheet music on the piano are Grandma Bertha's favorite songs scaled down to miniature size, as are the pictures in the family album.

Contribution to the house from the Skingley grandchildren and great grandchildren include the carpet runner on the stairs and second floor hallway, designed and woven on a loom by Su Abbott Butler; the knitting baskets and tiny Christmas stockings that can be hung by the fireplace when the house is decorated for the Christmas season were made by Kathryn Garbe. The silk curtains were made by Mary Esther's daughter, Debra Morse. Dorothy Skingley Abbott made six Persian rugs, and Mary Esther and Virginia Millikin made bedspreads, tablecloths, mattresses and curtains.

SECRET HIDING PLACE

Reproduction of the fireplace in the master bedroom is exact down to the secret rock that could be pulled out, and where Grandma Bertha hid her jewels. Again family stories have it that Grandma's jewels, which included a garnet brooch that she always wore, may have also included a collection of loose diamonds and other precious stones. Bertha's father or grandfather had been a jeweler who worked for the royal family. When a stone was rejected by the royalty, it was given to him as a gift. (Or so the story goes).

The Skingley farmhouse miniature even includes handmade dolls made to represent its residents. Grandma's hair was always piled on top of her head, Grandpa is shown reading his newspaper seated on the leather chair and George Skingley was made with buck teeth. There is even the Skingley's dog, Rover, shown laying on a large rock that was located beside the farmhouse, his favorite past time.

"Every effort was made to recreate the Skingley farmhouse authentically," said Mary Esther. She said that the only flaw in the entire project is the outhouse.

"With six children," she said, "I am just certain that they had a two holer instead of the single one included with the farmhouse."

Mary Esther said the donation of the Skingley miniature (on a scale of one inch to the foot) was given to the Crawford County Historical Museum with the hope that the people of Grayling and Crawford County and other visitors to the museum can, by viewing this home, enjoy this authentic model display of life in early Crawford County.

(A special "thank you" to Mary Esther Lokken for the historical information and photographs used in this article.)

SKINGLEY FARMHOUSE - The Skingley farmhouse was located on Merrio and Fletcher roads in Beaver Creek from 1901 until 1936, when it burned to the ground.
